LES PÉPINIÈRES EUROPÉENNES POUR JEUNES ARTISTES –YOUNG CREATION VIDEO CINEMA PROGRAM

The 13th edition of the Young Creation Video Cinema program will take place from January 24th to 29th in Biarritz, as part of the FIPA – International Festival of Audiovisual Programs.

Through transdisciplinarity artistic mobility programs, the Pépinières européennes pour jeunes artistes supported about 1500 artists on their professionalization path on the European artistic scene. Their ambition is to enhance and support the emergence of a community of young artists and creation professionals within Europe.

After years of faith-filled collaboration with the FIPA – that will celebrate its 30th birthday this year, the Pépinières continue to dig into the creations of a talented Young generation, now opening up to new forms of expression that renew the art of filmmaking in documentaries, fictions, animation movies, experimental movies, art videos, dance videos.

However their academic background, every one of the young artists that are showcased in the Young Creation Video Cinema program has a very special and unexpected vision of the world and a creativity that waves each and everyone of us. The selection will be screened as part of the New Talent selection of the FIPA.

THE PRIZES – MITRANI & ERASMUS + AGENCY

The prizes will be attributed to one of the New Talent selection movies (FIPA selection and Pépinières' selection) during the festival closing ceremony on January 29th 2017.

This prize honoring the memory of its founder will award an artwork that distinguishes itself by its spirit of resistance, the singularity of its style or its innovative approach. The film should also be a first or second realization. The Mitrani prize will consist in the endowment of 5000 euros from France Télévisions.

The Erasmus + Agency's special prize will reward a movie that reflects the Erasmus generation and highlights european values. More details about the prize will be announced soon.

All films can participate to the competition for the Mitrani prize, but only european film will be awarded by the Erasmus + Agency.
