BRAWE

ON YOUNG ARTISTS! BRAWE IS CALLING

A joint project between Turkey and Hungary, BRAWE, will take place simultaneously in two cities, Eskişehir and Budapest, and will bring artists, scholars and activists together for experimentation and collective work.

BRAWE will collectively select a group of young artists to participate in various seminars and workshops throughout the project duration for 7 months including 6 labs in each city and an international artist camp in Turkey. Focusing on the diversity of approaches to feminist discussions, BRAWE offers tools and arguments for young artists to create art projects with local and international collaboratorst. In its final stage, participants will organize an exhibition at Bankito Festival in July 2022 in Hungary.
